

Sermon-Based Study Guide | Menlo.Church

This guide is designed to guide a group discussion around the weekend sermon. You can also use this as an individual, but we highly recommend finding a friend and inviting them to discuss with you. Menlo Church has Life Groups meeting in-person and online using these guides.

What you will find in this guide:

A discussion guide for groups and individuals. If you are using this as an individual be sure to engage with each question in a journal or simply in your mind as you prayerfully consider what you heard in the sermon and seek to discover what God is inviting you to know and do.

Sermon-Based Discussion Guide for Groups and Individuals

April 14, 2024

Wonderfully Made

Every group is different; please choose the questions that relate best to your group, and don't feel like you must get to every question.

Connect

- Where have you seen God's love in your life recently?

Engage

Read John 13:34-35

- What is Jesus' command to his disciples?
- What is the way people know that we are disciples of Jesus?
- How do we love as Jesus did?

Apply

- Paul's letter to the Corinthians emphasizes the importance of honoring our bodies as temples of the Holy Spirit. How can we practically apply this principle in our daily lives?
- Reflecting on the timeline presented in the sermon, how do you think historical events and cultural shifts have impacted our views on sexuality?
- Phil has given guidelines for respectful conversations around difficult topics. What are practices that you use to cultivate humility and respect in these conversations?

Prayer

Take a moment to pray together. Give thanks for your community and the grace that we all share in God's love.

Going Deeper

Menlo Midweek Podcast:

Tune in every Wednesday for a conversation with the previous week's speaker. It's a deeper dive into the message and an engaging time to learn, reflect, grow—and have fun.
